MAY NOT PROSECUTE WOMAN WHO SHOT MAN

Mrs. Di Pietro Who Killed Her Brother-in-Law in Self-Defence Will Probably Be Set Free, Although District-Attorney Must Send Case to Grand Jury.

Prisoner, After Singing in Her Cell to Her Baby, Tells of Rago's Persecutions, How He Threatened Her and She Sought in Vain to Evade Him.

Mrs. Rosa Di Pietro, who, with her baby in her arms, shot and killed Michael Rago, may not be prosecuted, although, as a matter of form, her case will have to go before the Grand Jury.

In the Yorkville Court to-day, when the Italian woman appeared before Magistrate Ommen for arraignment, Assistant District-Attorney Kernochan asked for an adjournment until to-morrow morning in order that he might find out the exact intentions of Mr. Jerome in the matter.

Mrs. Di Pietro appeared in court, bearing up well under the strain that has been put upon her the last two days. She still holds that she did right and is ready to tell the Magistrate the story of the shooting. Her unsuccessful attempts to secure quiet and peace in her home and a freedom from the brutish annoyances of the man she killed. The Assistant District-Attorney assigned to the case, as soon as the witness entered the court-room, which was packed with an eager, curious crowd, asked for the adjournment of a day.

"Why?" said Magistrate Ommen.

"Because I wish to find out just what the District-Attorney wishes me to do in this case," replied Mr. Kernochan.

"Isn't this rather a strange procedure?" asked the Magistrate.

"I will be ready to go on with the case to-morrow," replied Mr. Kernochan, and the Magistrate consented.

Commissioner Lantry told the woman that there was no doubt that she would soon be at liberty when she begged him to open the prison door for her and let her go free.

"I am a good woman. He was a bad, bad man," she told the Commissioner.

NOT SORRY FOR HER DEED, MRS. DI PIETRO SAYS.

BY JOSEPHINE ROBB.

The scene in Yorkville Court to-day when Mrs. Rosa Di Pietro was arraigned was dramatic. Before the bar, surrounded by burly policemen,

Evening World

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1904.

TWO OF YALE'S PROMISING PLAYERS.

HIGHLANDERS AT ST. LOUIS

GLENECHO WINS THE HURRICANA

S. S. Brown's Colt Gets Out of the Maiden Class by Capturing the Chief Event at Morris Park.

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE—Rapid Water (8 to 1), Martinmas (7 to 2), Jack Ratlin 3.

SECOND RACE—Handzorra (2 to 5), Floralia (7 to 1), Fancy Dress 3.

THIRD RACE—Glenecho (8 to 5), Bank (8 to 5), Campo 3.

FOURTH RACE—Alana-Dale (12 to 10), Joud (4 to 8), Adriana 3.

FIFTH RACE—Leonidas (7 to 2), Castellan (9 to 2), Adios 3.

SIXTH RACE—Liberia (3 to 2), Acetia (12 to 1), Prince Ching 3.

(Special to The Evening World.)

MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, Oct. 5.—Glenecho won the Hurricane Stakes for Capt. Sam Brown Westchester this afternoon, and graduated from the maiden ranks at the same time. It is somewhat unusual for maidens that have been racing all the way to graduate in stakes, but Glenecho has been in few maiden races. He has always been sent against stiff company. He had only Bank to beat to-day. Bank was heavily favored because he had raced well down the hill in the spring, and Glenecho had never started on the course.

Alana-Dale beat Joud in the mile race. He was in front all the way and was never extended. The time of the race, 1:35.1, equaled the record for the course, held by Glenecho. If Alana-Dale had been equal to-day he might have run close to the world's record.

Rapid Water in a Drive.

Lady Ucares made the early pace with Reliable, Martinmas and Rapid Water in a close bunch behind. Lady Ucares was done early and then Martinmas showed in front for a short while. The favorite, Reliable, then died in the stretch. Rapid Water took the lead. He and Martinmas fought it out all the way home. Rapid Water winning by a head. Martinmas was three-quarters of a length in front of Jack Ratlin.

Handzorra Wins Easily.

Handzorra, a prohibitive favorite in the second race, went to the front at the start and breezed home an easy winner by a length. Fancy Dress second to the last sixteenth, where she tired, and Floralia, closing strong, got up in time to beat her a length for the place.

Glenecho Won Easily.

Bank and Glenecho were heavily backed in the Hurricane, the talent conceding the race to be between the pair. The start was bad, Bank being left and Darkie practically so. The other three got away in close order and ran on even terms for a quarter. Then Glenecho forced to the front and it was all over. Glenecho winning as he pleased by four lengths from Bank, who was six lengths in front of Campo, the latter stopping fast.

Strong Favorite Defeated.

Joud was a strong favorite in the fourth race, but Alana-Dale was at his best and defeated Joud very easily. Alana-Dale made the running a length in front of Joud until the stretch was reached. There O'Neill made the move on Joud, but he never disturbed Alana-Dale, who won easily by two lengths. Adriana, who was never a factor, was six lengths away.

Lady Amelia Defeated.

Lady Amelia was the favorite in the Bronx Highweight Handicap, but she was not down the hill. She had her early speed and led to the stretch, with Castellan and Adios next. In the run home Castellan went to the front and stayed there to the last sixteenth, where she faded and was closed by Adios. Prince Ching closed with Leonidas and won a good race by half a length from Castellan, who beat Adios a length.

Liberia in a Gallop.

Liberia and Acetia raced head and head, followed by Stolen Moments and Prince Ching. There was no change in this order to the stretch, where Liberia drew clear and won easily by a length. Acetia was three lengths in front of Prince Ching.
